

American Cranberrybush Viburnum trilobum

- Plant Characteristics: Upright, spreading, multi-stemmed shrub, often with arching branches to the ground creating a rounded habit, thicket forming in its native habitat.
- Size: Height: 8–12'
Width: 8–12'
- Foliage: Medium to dark green changing to yellow through red-purple in the fall.
- Flower: White flat-topped cymes.
- Fruit: Soft, berry-like drupes, 1/3 inch long that is bright red to scarlet early September through fall into February.
- Soil: Prefers good, well-drained, moist soil.
- USDA Hardiness Zone: Zone 2–7
- Light Range: Sun to partial shade.
- pH Range: 4.5–7.0 pH
- Other:
 - Fruit is edible.
 - Used for preserves and jellies.
 - Excellent shrub for screening, hedges and windbreaks.
 - Variety of birds eat fruit.
 - Does best on well-drained sites with better than average moisture.
 - Medium growth rate.
 - No major problems.