

'Princeton' Elm Ulmus americana 'Princeton'

- Plant Characteristics: These are large, graceful specimens with an upright vase-shaped habit.
- Size: Height: 60-80'
Width: 30-40'
- Foliage: Large leathery dark green in summer, yellow in fall; great variation in intensity of fall coloration.
- Flower: Greenish red in spring.
- Fruit: Rounded, notched, disc-shaped samara, 1/2" long, maturing in May through June, Not ornamental.
- Soil: Prefers rich, moist soil.
- USDA Hardiness Zone: Zone 3-9
- Light Range: Sun to partial shade.
- pH Range: Good soil salt tolerance, pH tolerance.
- Other:
  - Easily transplanted because of shallow, fibrous, wide-spreading root system.
  - In the wild the tree is a common inhabitant of wet flats where standing water may accumulate in the spring and fall.
  - Vigorous and good resistance to elm leaf beetle and Dutch elm disease.
  - Grows 4-6 feet per year.
  - 95% survival rate from all causes.
  - Medium growth rate.
  - This elm is not a hybrid but a true American elm with a proven scientific record of Dutch elm disease resistance and longevity on the street.